

Knowledge and Services for Sustainable Business

“AECOM (then Bassett) sub-consulted to Manor Sustainability Consulting to provide energy sustainability advice in a very tight time frame, at a time when we were unable to resource the work internally. The client was a major developer, and the project was a landmark industrial estate in Sydney with ambitious targets for energy efficiency and environmental sustainability. Barry Manor (director of MSC) was able to deliver a comprehensive and well-researched report on time. The report played a key part in the developer's decision to undertake a number of the initiatives identified.”
